

2nd Announcement – Call for abstracts

(ver. of Feb. 4, 2013)

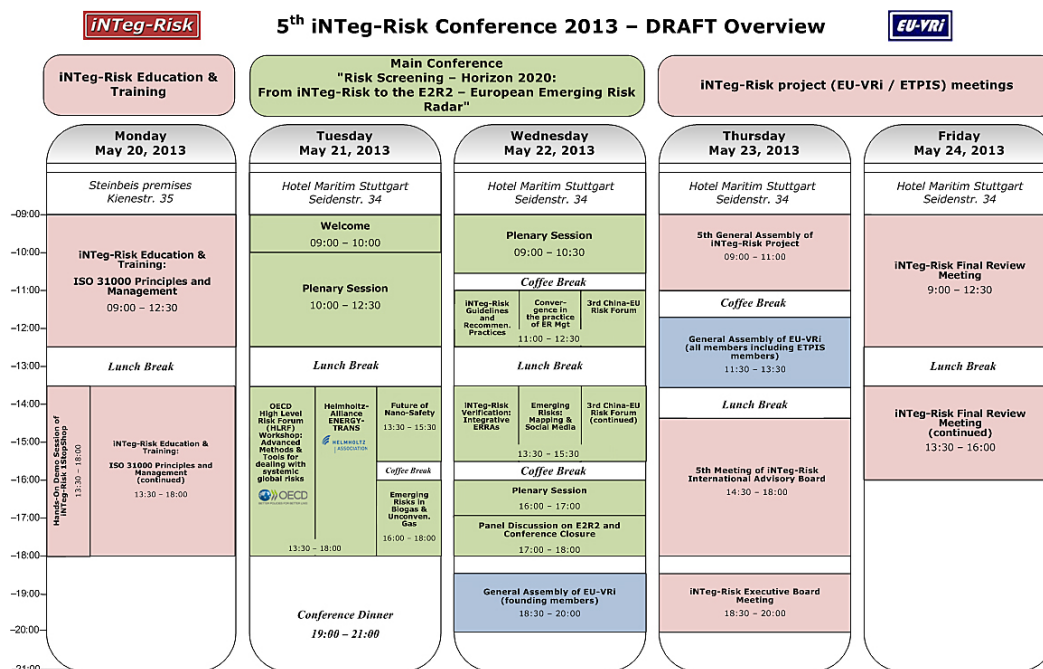

The iNTEg-Risk team is pleased to announce the

5th iNTEg-Risk Conference 2013

"Risk Screening – Horizon 2020:
From iNTEg-Risk to the E2R2 – European Emerging Risk Radar"

supported by The Society for Risk Analysis (SRA)

Stuttgart, Germany on May 21-22, 2013

The 5th iNTEg-Risk conference is an excellent opportunity for project partners to communicate their results to the "outside world" and an opportunity for interested professionals, not participating in the iNTEg-Risk project, to learn about the project and its numerous results (<http://integrisk.eu-vri.eu>). This conference is partly dedicated to one of the ways for ensuring sustainability of the final project results: The European Emerging Risk Radar (E2R2) Initiative is envisaged as a platform enabling to recognize, monitor and manage emerging risks at the European level.

In order to ensure that the most interesting and relevant topics are included in the program of the Main Conference, we kindly invite you to communicate your interest by registering and submitting an abstract (200 words) at:

<http://eu-vri.eu/fwlink/?LinkID=394>

before

February 15, 2013
(extended deadline!)

Please, note that the relevance of your contribution to the topics of the conference (management of emerging risks and related early warnings) will be decisive for the peer-review based acceptance of your paper / presentation.

The preliminary program of the conference comprises:
